(1) Methods of Accessing CPNI.

(a) Telephone Access to CPNI. When applicable, it is the Company's policy to only disclose call detail information over the telephone, based on customer-initiated telephone contact, if the customer first provides the Company with a password, as described in Section (2), that is not prompted by the carrier asking for readily available biographical information, or account information. When applicable, the Company will notify customers immediately whenever a password, customer response to a back-up means of authentication for lost or forgotten passwords, online account, or address of record is created or changed. This notification is not required when the customer initiates service, including the selection of a password at service initiation. This notification may be through a Company-originated voicemail or text message to the telephone number of record, or by mail to the address of record, and must not reveal the changed information or be sent to the new account information.

E. Notification of CPNI Security Breaches
